(a) Creative & Cultural Plan- Update and Discussion on Progress and Key Issues

Mairead Owens, County Librarian, gave a presentation related to progress on the 2017 Creative Ireland Initiative and development of the DLR Culture and Creativity Plan. Ms. Owens provided a written outline of feedback to the Creative Ireland Public Meeting held on 26th April 2017. There was strong representation from the artistic community at the public meeting. Ms Owens responded to questions during the discussion which followed. Dearbhla Lawson and Mairead Owens drew SPC members' attention to the questions that were circulated ahead of the meeting which sought views to help inform the development of the Plan. A discussion ensued regarding culture in dlr, and importance of clarifying significant variety of activity that is underway. The importance of local communication about events was highlighted and the role dlr libraries play in promoting events through the branch network and on social media. A progress update on the draft Creative and Culture Plan 2017-2022 will be provided at the next meeting of the SPC.

(b) Presentation on the dlr Mountains to Sea Book Festival 2017

Carolyn Brown, Assistant Arts Officer, gave a comprehensive presentation on the Mountains to Sea dlr Book Festival 2017. 69 events took place in venues throughout Dun Laoghaire and Dundrum. Over 650 tickets were sold for events on International Woman's day, a highlight of the very successful festival. The programme can be viewed on www.mountaintosea.ie. Feedback from an exit survey will influence aims to further develop, diversify and attract new audiences and developing further partnerships with local businesses. Ms. Brown responded to a wide range of comments and questions.

(c) Presentation on the Age Friendly Strategy

Helen Griffin, Administrative Officer, gave a presentation on progress being made with the Age Friendly Strategy which was a year old, and good progress was being made. Helen confirmed that next steps involved the launch of the Petal Project and updated Directory of Services for Older People in dlr. Dearbhla Lawson and Helen Griffin responded to questions and comments. Ms. Griffin referred to a review and refresh of age-friendly actions being undertaken and that an update would be provided to a future meeting.

(d) Update on the Music Education Partnership BID

Kenneth Redmond, Arts Officer, gave an update on the Music Generation BID for funding. He clarified that this is a competitive process and there are 16 applicants, 5 of which are expected to be awarded funding. All partners played a significant role in supporting the development of the bid. Over 300 children of all ages were consulted and the funding application sets out a comprehensive programme to respond to their needs. It will be a three year programme and include instrumental as well as vocal tuition. The Council expect to be notified in July if the dlr BID has been successful. Mr Redmond and Ms Lawson responded to questions and comments during the discussion which followed.
